Get to know the Friends of the Deltona Library

The Friends work actively to strengthen the Deltona Regional Library. Backed by the belief that libraries are uniquely democratic, Friends promote, advocate and seek funding for the library. Through the Friends projects, members strive to give children an educational head start, encourage literacy and foster life-long learning and recreation for adults.

Thanks to many Friends business partners, the organization has been able to extend its activities. Recently, the Walmart Super Center on Howland Boulevard gave two grants – one to provide a children's program and one to provide Wii games in the new teen room. Ruby Tuesday is helping membership efforts by offering a gift certificate to members joining or renewing at the $50 and over level.

Other business supporters include Chili's, Prosperity Bank, Hutchins Realty, La Boy Allstate Insurance, David Llewellyn of Edward Jones, Riverside Bank, and TG Lee Dairy.

The Friends of the Deltona Library Board of Directors meets at the Deltona Regional Library at 10 a.m. the second Thursday of the month. New volunteers and interested patrons are always welcome to join.
